This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

Report for the Year 1881-82.

Read at the Annual Meeting, Aug. 15, 1882.

SINCE the last Annual General Meeting two volumes have been delivered to the members. The first of these, Volume V. of the Society's series, is a transcript of the earliest volume of the "Parish Registers of Prestbury, co. Chester," from the year 1560 to 1636, edited by Mr. James Croston, F.S.A. At a time when so much attention is being paid to the subject of Parish Registers, and their publication or safe preservation, the appearance of this volume is particularly appropriate. The parish of Prestbury is the largest in Cheshire, and as a consequence the early Registers are unusually full and contain many entries relating to the old families of the Leghs of Adlington, the Warrens of Poynton, the Davenports of Woodford and Henbury, the Downes of Shrigley, the Worths of Titherington, &c. &c., together with those relating to the lesser gentry and yeomen families. It is worthy of note that Mr. Croston states that many of the names found in this Register are still common in the district, showing that these families have been resident in the parish for centuries past. It has also fortunately happened that the old paper Register from which the parchment one was copied c. 1600 is still in existence, and the differences in the spelling of the names, &c., is indicated by those from the parchment Register being placed in square brackets. There is a concise Introduction by the editor and a very full Index, which comprises over 20,000 names.

Volume VI. of the Society's series, recently issued to the members, is a volume of "Cheshire and Lancashire Funeral Certificates," taken between the years 1600 and 1678, edited by Mr. J. Paul Rylands, F.S.A. By an order made in 1568 by the Duke of Norfolk as Earl Marshall of England, every King of Arms, Herald or pursuivant who should serve at any funeral was directed to return into the Heralds' College a true certificate, signed by the executors, containing the date of death and burial of the deceased, with an account of his marriage and his issue, their respective ages, &c., to the intent "that the sayd Certificate may be regestrede and so remayne as a perpetuall recorde in the sayd office for ever." Comparatively few of these documents are, however, now preserved, but yet it fortunately happens that, owing to the well-known antiquaries, the Randle Holmes of Chester, having been appointed Deputy Heralds for Cheshire, Lancashire, and North Wales, that a large number of these certificates (either the originals or contemporary copies) are preserved among the Harleian MSS. in the British Museum, a few others being found in the Record Office, and in other collections of MSS. in the British Museum. This volume contains all the Cheshire certificates which could be discovered (about 280 in all) and some 12 Lancashire ones, which had not been printed in the volume of Lancashire Funeral Certificates published by the Chetham Society in 1868. These certificates are very valuable from a genealogical point of view and are also of much general interest, as they relate to all classes of people and give information not to be found elsewhere. Being signed by the executors or near relatives of the deceased, they are the most authentic documents the genealogist can require, and as such have always taken high rank.

In the Introduction Mr. Rylands has given copies of some of the very curious "Funeral Processions" which took place at the death of any distinguished man, and also prints a long series of memoranda, "how to arrange and conduct a Funeral," which are of a very interesting character. Illustrations are also given of the various "hearses," "banners," flags, &c., which were used, together with bills of the cost of the different classes of funerals. The Certificates are also embellished by numerous illustrations of shields of arms and autographs.

Volumes VII. and VIII. of the Society's publications are now in the printer's hands, and only require to be indexed and bound, so that it is hoped they will be in the hands of the members before long. In them will be found a very comprehensive account of the various classes of records relating to Lancashire and Cheshire to be found in Her Majesty's Public Record Office, London, illustrated by numerous examples of many of the documents referred to and by very valuable lists of names, both of persons and places belonging to the two counties. These books have been edited by Mr. Walford D. Selby of the Public Record Office, who has divided his materials into two Parts. Volume VII. deals with (1) the Records of the Duchy of Lancaster, with special reference to the Lancashire and Cheshire manors belonging to it, (2) the Records of the Palatinate of Lancashire, and (3) those of the Superior and Abolished Courts as far as they relate to the two counties, the value of each class of records being as far as possible shown by examples of the various and important documents they contain. Volume VIII. deals with the various Indices to the Records which have from time to time been compiled, together with such special classes of documents as Special Commissions, Licences and Pardons, Royalist Composition Papers, &c. &c., all of which throw much new light on the past history of the two counties and indicate the best sources of information to be consulted by those working at either local or family history.

Volume IX. will contain verbatim transcripts of the Guild Rolls of Preston, commencing with the earliest now preserved, that of 1397 down to 1682. This volume, which will be edited by Mr. W. A. Abram of Blackburn, is now in the press. It was not found possible to get it printed in time to be ready for the Guild celebration (held every twenty years) which is to take place next September, but it will be in the hands of the members in the new year. To the Lancashire genealogist it will be of the greatest possible value, as it contains a mass of genealogical information of which there is no other record.

Volume X. will probably be the Index to the North Lancashire Wills, proved at Richmond, co. York, announced in the last Report. It will contain the list of these wills down to the year 1690, and will be edited by Lieut.-Col. Fishwick, F.S.A. By the kind permission of Sir James Hannen, President of the Probate Division of Her Majesty's High Court of Justice, the Indices now at Somerset House for the Deaneries of Amounderness, Furness, and Lonsdale (as far as relates to Lancashire) have been transcribed and the MS. is now being arranged for the press. This volume will be followed in due course by another, which will bring down the list of wills to the year 1748.

Mr. J. A. C. Vincent's Report on the Lancashire Subsidy Rolls has been delayed owing to the discovery of several hitherto uncalendered documents, which bring up the number of Lancashire Lay Subsidies to about 400. It is hoped that this volume may appear at an early date.

The Council are endeavouring to arrange for a volume of Miscellanies in which it is proposed to print, inter alia, a very curious and early Homage Roll of the manor of Hale, co. Lancaster; a list of the names of the Freeholders in Lancashire in 1600 arranged under the different Hundreds, a list of the Justices of the Peace in Cheshire in 1601 and 1620, and other similar documents. It is also hoped that the Early Marriage Licences at Chester, commencing in 1606, will shortly be printed by the Society.

The following works have also been suggested to the Council for publication :—

"Institutions to Lancashire and Cheshire Churches from the Episcopal Registers at Lichfield and Chester."

"List of Cheshire Inquisitiones post Mortem, with Calendars of Heirs."

"Inquisitions of Proofs of Age, Liveries, and Grants of Wardship, Marriage, &c."

"A Handy List of all the Lancashire Inquisitiones post Mortem, the Subsidy Rolls, and other Public Records."

"The Chartulary of the Abbey of St. Werburgh at Chester."

"Royalist Composition Papers relating to Lancashire and Cheshire."

"Abstracts of Wills from Chester and Richmond."

"Local Parish Registers."

&c. &c. &c.

During the past year several new members have joined the Society, and, deducting the names of those who have died or resigned, and those whose names have been removed for non-payment of subscriptions, the total number of members now stands at about the same as last year. It cannot be too often repeated that if this number could be increased the operations of the Society could be much extended, and it is hoped that the members will induce their friends to join the Society.

☞ The Council desire to direct attention to Rule 5, which enacts that no volume shall be delivered to any member whose subscription is in arrear.

The Balance-sheet, showing the receipts and expenditure of the Society for the current year, is given on the next page.

I.

"Great Ayloffe," 1692.

BENJAMIN AYLOFFE, the industrious compiler of the ancient Calendar so entitled, was for more than thirty years Clerk and Keeper of the Records of the Duchy Court of Lancaster. Being the largest of the several manuscript indexes known by his name, it has acquired the distinctive appellation of "Great" Ayloffe, and it is undoubtedly by far the most curious and interesting, if not the most valuable, of the whole series of "Ayloffes."[1]

In a schedule, annexed to Ayloffe's last Will and Testament, the volume is described as, "A book giving an Account of all or most of the Records in the Dutchy Office, and how to find them; the compiling of which was thirty years." It was commenced in the year 1684, as the author himself informs us. Here then, arises a difficulty. To what does the date 1692 refer? It is commonly supposed to represent the date of its completion, and, in all probability, this supposition is correct. We must, in such case, consider Ayloffe's statement as to the thirty years to mean that, from time to time throughout this longer period, the manuscript continued to receive some further additions at his hands.

[1] See the list on pages 5 and 6 (Nos. 13–22) ante.

However this may be, the venerable Index, after a lapse of nearly two hundred years since its completion, has now, through Her Majesty's munificence, become public property; and, strange to say, notwithstanding the vast progress that has been made during the present century, in throwing open the contents of the public records of the realm—including those of the Duchy of Lancaster—Ayloffe's Calendar has lost but little of its original value as a work of reference.

Of the high esteem in which it was held by generations that have long passed away, there is ample testimony in the well-nigh worn out condition of its discoloured, ragged, and greasy pages. The only question which now suggests itself, is—how long the fragile leaves will withstand the rough usage of a public search-room. In some parts, where the pages are badly creased or torn, portions of the manuscript are almost undecipherable; while, in others, where the margins have crumbled away, the writing is altogether lost.

Such being the present condition of this comparatively recent national acquisition, the next point is, to ascertain the nature of the compilation.

Ayloffe's system of indexing, as exemplified in the volume under consideration, was not so much to exhaust the contents of any class, bundle, roll, or book, as to jot down, during the examination of any of the Duchy records, anything that seemed to him deserving of notice, or that would be likely to prove of importance in matters which might become the subject of inquiry or litigation. Thus, his collections far more closely resemble the contents of some antiquary's note-book, than, an official guide.

Turning over the fragile leaves, the eye catches such headings and subjects as the following:—Succession of the Earls of Chester. — Genealogy of the Earls and Dukes of Lancaster.—The Pedigree of the Lords of Clare, Gloucester, and Hereford.—The descent of Edward IV.—The descent of Henry VII. from John of Gaunt.—The descent of King James from Henry VII.—An Account of all the Chancellors of the Duchy. — Divers Queens' Jointures. — Charters to Corporations.—Claims at Iters in cos. Lancaster and York.—Minstrels' Court, and concerning the Bull.—Rings, &c. due to the Chancellor of the Duchy from New Serjeants.—Bondmen in Several Manors.—Grants of Markets.—Savoy Hospital.—Touching "puter" money and the collection thereof.—Saxon Letters.—A list of the Towns and Places within the Duchy which send Members to Parliament.—Latin Pleadings.—Game-Keepers.—Customs of Furness.—Tenures. — Presentations.—Toll, &c., &c. Here too—inserted between the leaves—will be found, several printed Acts of Parliament, newspaper-cuttings (from the London Gazette and other early periodicals), tables of regnal years, engravings of seals, a copy of Manlove's curious Tract on the Liberties and Customs of the Lead-mines within the Wapentake of Wirksworth, printed in 1653; and many other odd scraps. Anything connected with the Duchy or its possessions or any information which might become serviceable in the course of his researches was here carefully registered.

To many, the manuscript might, at first sight, appear to be little less than a confused jumbling up of antiquarian odds and ends, totally devoid of any system of classification or order; but this disappears in a great measure, upon close examination. It is, however, only fair to state that, the learned Keeper of the Duchy records, never intended that his labours should be handed down to posterity in their present shape. A brief note, in Ayloffe's hand-writing, almost hidden away at the end of the volume, briefly summarizes the history of the manuscript, and the intentions of its author. Ayloffe's own words are—

"Since I had collected the matters contained in this Booke (which was begun in the yeare 1684), I intended to have formed it into a more regular method. But, finding noe manner of encouragm[t], nor any hopes thereof, I therefore left it thus as it is.

"Yet for the Benefitt of the office and my Successor, I have added severall other Collecc̃ons and Kalendars, as may appere in the ffirst page of this Booke; without which the Office must have been at a greate inconvenience, and the Suitors likewise, for the want of ffinding out of such Records as may happen to be enquired for at present or hereafter."

(Signed) "B. A."[1]

Such was the reward of this painstaking antiquary. The labours of a lifetime, through want of proper official recognition, lost the finishing touches which should have rendered them of permanent value. Nothing remains, therefore, but to take the manuscript as it has come down to us, and be thankful that we possess it even in its present imperfect condition. The work which Ayloffe himself proposed to undertake, is now, to a very limited extent, attempted in the ensuing pages.

The one great difficulty in dealing with "Great Ayloffe," is in connexion with the references to the original documents, or books. These are given after such a highly abbreviated method, that, although they were perfectly intelligible to the compiler, yet, to ninety-nine out of every hundred searchers at the present day, they are simply hieroglyphics. Some, such as the following:—"In the Garrett"; "In the Long Press in the uppermost division"; "In the Press behind the Study door"; "In the Trunck No. 41, at the right hand partition thereof, next to the Study door"; "In a Bagg"; and the like, are, of course, now utterly useless. Others are so vague, that they fail to convey any meaning, except to those who have carefully studied the volume, and are well acquainted with the various classes of the Duchy records. Thus, books are referred to as,—"L. 1 H. 8," "Lib. Irrott.," "Lib. Com."; rolls are defined as,—"Rot. Warr," "Rot. Indent"; Decrees as,—"Fil."; these, and many similar references, require precise explanation, to enable the searcher to trace the original manuscripts, and, without a key to explain these abbreviated titles, Ayloffe's entries are comparatively valueless. It is, therefore, to be hoped that, the explanatory lists and notes which are now provided in these pages, will at least help to clear away this fatal obstacle to the proper understanding of Ayloffe's useful manuscript.

The portions of "Great Ayloffe" included in these pages, do not exhaust the whole of the Lancashire and Cheshire entries. To have collected all the scattered references, would have occupied far too much time, without affording any proportionate result. The parts selected are, principally, those where the compiler has himself digested the work into counties. It may, however, be satisfactory to state that, the present selections, which are given as far as possible verbatim et literatim as they appear in the original, use up nearly all the most important material bearing on the two Counties.

Note.—The lists, furnished for the explanation of Ayloffe's references, immediately precede those portions of the Calendar to which they apply.

[1] Ayloffe's references to the two Registers for this reign are somewhat confusing; the shortest way is to try the various paginations of the two volumes in the first instance, and in the event of this failing, to refer to the modern Calendar in Division xxxiii. (Calendars and Indices), No. 25.—Ed.

[2] On page 20 of the App. to the 30th Report of the Deputy-Keeper this Liber Actorum Ducatus Lancastriæ, tempore Hen. VII. is referred to, and it is stated, that the volume "is not at present known to exist." —Ed.

[3] At the end of the volume there is a note to this effect:—"This Book was delivered unto me the Fryday being the 6 of Maye A° 1586 et A° D'ne Reg' nunc xxviij° by Sr Gilbert Gerrard, Knight, M^r of the Rolles, all the leaves before 9 of the booke then lacking."

[1] See the Appendix to the 32nd Report of the Deputy-Keeper, p. 339, No. 59.—Ed.

[2] The roll, F. 37, in Division xxv. of the Duchy records, seems to be referred to; if so, it would appear that some of the Quo Warranto membranes are now wanting. The roll was originally marked "16," not "14" as given by Ayloffe above, inasmuch as, in an old class-list provided in "Great Ayloffe," the two rolls are distinctly described thus:—No. 14.—"Two rolls of Evidences found in the Castle of Pontefract," relating to Henry de Lacy, Earl of Lincoln; No. 16.—"One Roll of r. r. E. I., 20, of Quo Warranto, of divers things in the County of Lanc., with severall Claymes and Allowances." There can, therefore, be no doubt that the roll marked "16" is the one of which Ayloffe furnishes the above abstract. These Claims are printed in extenso in the Placita de Quo Warranto, pp. 369–388, from a duplicate among the Assize Rolls of the Queen's Bench (Crown Side), No. $\left.\begin{matrix}\text{M}\\3\\1\end{matrix}\right\}$ 10 (see pp. 149–150, ante).—Ed.

[3] On leaf 89 b, Ayloffe gives the following:—To SIR RICHARD MOLLINEUX (10 July, 27 Eliz.).—Cheife Forester in West Derbyshire, and Steward there, and in Salfordshire; and Constable of Liverpoole. The folio publications of the Record Commission, and the recent Calendars of the Duchy Records printed in the Reports of the Deputy-Keeper, will also be found useful.*

II.

Exchequer Special Commissions.

THIS class furnishes an abundance of material available for legal as well as for topographical purposes. The documents were formerly on the file of Commissions, with the Depositions annexed, and were entered in a book, entitled "The Book of the Returns of Commissions." The Special Commissions are, however, now separated from the Depositions taken by Commission, and form a distinct class.

The contents of these records deal with such subjects as the following:—Surveys of lordships, manors, lands, and other possessions which the Crown acquired by forfeiture, purchase, or exchange; disputes respecting the boundaries of manors, parks, forests, and other places; concealed lands, rectories, and tithes; and inquisitions of lands gained by dereliction of the sea. Some fine specimens of early maps are also to be found in this collection.

An excellent Calendar of the Depositions by Commission, extending from 1 Elizabeth to the end of the reign of George the Second, is printed in the Appendices to the Deputy-Keeper's Reports,[1] and is still in progress. If the

[1] Reports xxxviii. pp. 150–775 (Elizabeth and James I.); xxxix. pp. 307–531 (Charles I.); xl. pp. 1–466 (Commonwealth, Charles II., and James II.); xli. pp. 1–670 (William & Mary, Anne, and George I.); and xlii. pp. 1–312 (George II.).

Lancashire and Cheshire portions of this Calendar were collected and reprinted with a good Index, it would thoroughly open up a considerable quantity of interesting material which has hitherto been entirely neglected by the local historian.

Some work of a similar character might also be recommended in connexion with the ancient manuscript Indexes to the Bills and Answers on the Queen's Remembrancer's Side of the Exchequer. The English Informations are in the name of the Attorney General for the time, on behalf of the Crown, and relate to the revenue; in some cases they are at the relation of private individuals, with reference to charities and other public trusts and uses. The English Bills are other proceedings in Equity between subject and subject. The Answers, Depositions, and Examinations are further proceedings thereon.

The English Informations and Bills are entered in books called Bill Books, the documents being arranged under counties, containing the number as marked on each Information and Bill, together with the names of the plaintiffs and defendants, and, in some instances, brief particulars of the matters in dispute. These proceedings range from the first year of the reign of Queen Elizabeth to 1841, when by Stat. 5 Vict. c. 5 the jurisdiction of the Court of Exchequer as a Court of Equity was transferred to the Court of Chancery.

In addition to the preceding, there are also Books containing the Orders and Decrees of the Court of Exchequer in all matters there depending and brought before the Court; these furnish the result of the litigation.

The accompanying brief descriptive catalogue of the Special Commissions has been compiled, with some alterations and additions, from the one prepared by Mr. J. J. Bond, Assistant Keeper of the Public Records, which is printed in the Appendix to the 38th Report of the Deputy-Keeper, pp. 1–149. The documents are, however, deserving of a much more detailed Calendar.

III.

County Placita.

THE records in filaciis in Chancery were commonly called County Placita. They are proceedings connected with the ordinary jurisdiction of the Court of Chancery, or Common Law Proceedings, when the Lord Chancellor proceeds "secundum legem et consuetudinem Angliæ."

In the Second Appendix to the Seventh Report of the Deputy-Keeper of the Public Records, the following observations on this class are furnished by the late Sir T. Duffus Hardy:—

"These proceedings consist of pleas on matters of record, viz.—by 'Scire Facias,'[1] for the repeal of the King's Letters Patent; for partition

[1] "When any fact was disputed on a 'Scire Facias' to revoke Grants by the Crown, traverses of office, or the like, and issue was joined thereon, it was transmitted to the Court of King's Bench for trial, and final judgment was entered up and execution issued in that Court, and not afterwards returned into Chancery; but when the Court of Chancery wished to know the result, or the parties desired to have the whole proceedings exemplified under the Great Seal, or transmitted to other Courts, then a tenor of the proceedings was certified into Chancery by 'Certiorari.' But none of the records which were delivered by the Chancellor to the Chief Justice of the King's Bench appear to have been remanded into Chancery, and apparently for the reason, that 'so supreme is the jurisdiction of the Court of King's Bench, that if any record be removed into this Court, it cannot be remanded back, unless it be by Act of Parliament'; the transcript of the record is sent, but not of land in Coparcenary and for dower; upon recognizances acknowledged pursuant to Statute Merchant and Statute Staple; in traverses of offices found for the Crown by inquisition; and in matters of lunacy and idiotcy, &c.; and also of pleas in matters not of record, viz.—proceedings by or against officers of the Court.

"These documents also consist of tenors or certificates of the proceedings in the King's Bench, Common Pleas, Exchequer, in Gaol Delivery, &c., and of records and other documents in the custody of the Treasurer and Chamberlains of the Exchequer, such as Domesday Book, Statutes and Ordinances made in Parliament, Feet of Fines, Testa de Neville, brought into Chancery by writ of 'Certiorari,' at the suit of parties, either for the purpose of being transmitted to other Courts by 'Mittimus,' or of being exemplified under the Great Seal, and enrolled on the Chancery Rolls."[1]

The short Calendar hereto annexed gives, in a very much condensed form, the substance of the official Index to these documents, which, although a modern compilation, is written in Latin throughout. A very large quantity of similar Placita still remain on the original "Chancery Files,"[2] and among the Rolls Chapel[3] and Petty Bag Office records.

the record itself." [But as to the course now, see Stat. 11 & 12 Vict, c. 94.]

"It may be here stated, as not being irrelevant to the preceding remarks, that it would seem, from a petition to the King in Parliament in the second year of the reign of King Henry IV., that when an issue of fact was joined on the Common Law Side of the Court of Chancery, the Chancellor, instead of sending the issue to be tried in the Court of King's Bench, was in the habit of calling the Common Law Judges into Chancery to assist him in the discussion of such issues, to the great delay of the law and the damage of the people. The King was, therefore, besought to ordain that traverses of office and writs of Scire Facias should be returned to the King's Bench or Common Pleas, to be there discussed and terminated according to law. To this petition the King answered :—The Chancellor has power to do so by virtue of his office; and let it be, as it has hitherto been, at the discretion of the Chancellor for the time being."—Seventh Report, App. ii., p. 277, note.

9 Hen. III. No. 1. Pedes Finium. Hamon de Oregrave, demandant, and Robert, Abbot of Furnays, tenant, concerning land in Oregrave. The same Abbot, demandant, and Hamon son of Roger, defendant, concerning an iron-mine in Horgrave.

20 Edw. I. No. 2 (A). Quo warranto. William Caunce-felde claims to have free warren, wreck of the sea, weyf, gallows, &c., in the Manor of Aldingham, under a Charter granted by King John to his grandfather, William de Furneys.

Verdict for William.

" No. 2 (B). Quo warranto. Nicholas Blundel claims to have wreck of the sea in the Manor of Aymulnedale which his ancestors had possessed from time immemorial.

Judgment for the King.

" No. 2 (C). Quo warranto. The Prior of Durham claims to have wreck of the sea in Lytham, by virtue of an ancient charter of William the Conqueror made to his antecessor, then Prior there.

Judgment for the King.

" No. 2 (D). Quo warranto. The Prior of Kertmel claims to have a free Court at Kertemel; and, as to the assise of bread and ale, wreck of the sea, and weyf, he produces a charter made temp. Ric. I., by which, William le Mareshall gave the Manor of Kertmel to his (the Prior) Church of S. Mary, and also another charter, dated 54 Hen. III., confirming a grant of King John, whereby he confirmed the first-named charter.

Verdict for the Prior, except as to wreck of the sea and weyf, which are adjudged to the King.

20 Edw. I. No. 2 (E). Placita Corone. The King v. Richard de Waleton—concerning serjeanties. Richard held Waleton in Hale in the Wapentake of Derby by a rent of £10 paid to the King, which money is now received by Robert Holand, who, as to other lands in Walton, Wavertre, and Newsom, held by Richard of the King by serjeanty, had encroached on the right of the King as to the wardship and marriage of Richard.

Judgment that the King do recover against Robert Holand the values of the said wardship and marriage.

" No. 2 (F). Quo warranto. Master Adam de Waleton, parson of the church of Wygan, claims to have a market, fair, assise of bread and ale in Wygan, and further claims on behalf of himself and his men to be quit of all suit to County and Hundred Courts, and also to have free burgage &c. in the town aforesaid. In proof of which he produces two charters made by Hen. III.; of which, one dated in the 30th year of his reign to John Mansel, parson of the church, grants that his town of Wygan shall be a borough for ever, and that the Burgesses shall have a market-gild, with other liberties and free customs, and be quit of toll, lastage, passage, pontage, and stallage, &c. By the other charter, dated 42 Hen. III., the King granted to John Maunsel, that he and his successors, being parsons of the church, might have in the borough of Wygan a weekly market on Mondays and two fairs every year, to last six days, viz., the eve, day, and morrow of the Ascension, and the eve, day, and morrow of All Saints.

The Jury say that the said Adam and his predecessors, from the date of the charters aforesaid, have had fairs and markets in the borough; and that, on conviction of breaking the assise of bread, the delinquent might be amerced, but not punished otherwise. Notwithstanding, a certain Henry Crowe, for theft of an ox, had been kept in prison for three weeks, and then hanged for the robbery, of which he had owned he was guilty. On this and further matters, judgment is given, that the borough with the liberties contained in the first charter be taken into the King's hand and committed to the sheriff to answer to the King for the issues. As to the market and fair claimed by the other charter, and taking amends for breaking the assise of bread and ale on market and fair days, Adam to retain those at present; but, since trespassers against such assise, of custom, are punished by amercement and not judicially, Adam is amerced, and the suitors likewise.

20 Edw. I. No. 2 (G). Quo warranto. On behalf of the commonalty of the borough of Lancaster, Lambert Balls, Master Thomas de Lancastre, Robert de Chaderton, and William de Claghton, produce a charter of King John, whereby he granted to his burgesses of Lancaster all the liberties which the King's burgesses of Northampton had on the day of his father's (Hen. III.) death, in lieu of the liberties of the town of Bristol which he granted to them while Earl of Mortein. Moreover, they claimed to be quit of suit of mill and other servile customs. They produce also the said charter of the King, made while he was Earl of Mortein, by which he granted to his burgesses of Lancaster all liberties given to the burgesses of Bristol. By these charters they claim to be quit of toll and other things, and to have a free borough with a weekly market on Saturdays, and a yearly fair beginning on Michaelmas day and lasting eleven days, beside other liberties.

Judgment that the said liberties be taken into the King's hand, and the Bailiffs and Commonalty are amerced. Afterwards, the burgesses give to the King 10 marks.

20 Edw. I. No. 3. Quo warranto. The Abbot of Furneys claims to have the Sheriff's tourn, the amends of the assise of bread and ale, wreck of the sea, weyf, infangenethef and free chase in Dalton, Kyrkeby Ireleygh, Penygton, Ulverston, Aldingham, Legh, and Ursewyke in Furneys; to be quit of common fines and amercements of the county court, suits at the courts of the county and wapentake; also to have market, fair, and gallows in Dalton, and to make summonses and attachments by his own bailiff in Furneys.

These liberties were claimed by virtue of charters granted by Hen. III. Verdict in favour of the Abbot as to the Sheriff's tourn, amends of bread and ale, wreck of the sea, weyf, and infangenethef; but as to common fines &c., not quit, and as to other liberties, for the present sine die.

" No. 4. Quo warranto. Margaret, who was wife of Geoffrey de Neville, claims to have a market in Ergum and a fair in Horneby, free warren in Horneby, Mellinge, and Wrae, and the Sheriff's tourn in the same; also, infangenethef and weyf in Horneby and Mellinge, and gallows in Mellinge. She produces a charter, dated 8 Edw. I., whereby the King granted to Geoffrey de Neville and Margaret his wife the said liberties, as therein specified; also the King's Writ to the Justices in Eyre relating to her claim to divers liberties in her Manors of Ergum and Horneby, which were formerly of Roger de Montbegon, and which she recovered before the late King's (H. III.) Justices against John de Burgh, son and heir of Hubert de Burgh, as her right and inheritance, and in evidence of which she produced a charter, dated 13 Hen. III., by which the King granted to Hubert de Burgh and Margaret his wife and their issue for ever (inter alia) quittance of passage, pontage, stallage, tallage, &c., and that they should have their lands with sok and saak, thol and theam, infangenethef, &c., frankpledge, and a free court for all pleas and plaints.

Verdict in favour of Margaret, and Judgment thereupon.

20 Edw. I. No. 5. Quo warranto. Henry de Lacy, Earl of Lincoln, claims to have free warren in Caune, Little Merchesdene, Great Merchesdene, Brerclyve, Brumly, Padyngham, Wyddenes, Appelton, Denton, Upton, and Crawynton; a market and fair in Cliderhow; wreck of the sea and weyf in all his fees within the Wapentake of Leylandshire; amends of the assise of bread and ale, infangenethef, utfangenethef, weyf, and gallows in Cliderhow, Penwortham, Upton, Crawynton, and in all his fees in Rachedale and the Wapentake of Blakeburnshire; also to be quit for himself and his men of the custody of felons, &c., and of common fines, &c. He produces a charter, dated 4 John, by which the King granted to him and his heirs a yearly fair to last for two days, i.e. the day and morrow of S. Mary Magdalene; also two other charters, dated 25 Hen. III., one granting a weekly market on Wednesdays at Rachedale, and the other, free warren in the demesne lands. As to the Wapentake of Blakeburnshire, he says that he has his Court of Cliderhow, which is commonly called "Wapentach de Blakeburneshire," where all the men thereof are wont to plead in minor pleas. He and his ancestors have had a weekly market at Cliderhow on Saturdays from the time of William the Conqueror. He claims wreck of the sea in his manor of Penwortham in Laylandshire, in Northmelis, and Wydnes in Derbishire, and in Newton, Frekelton, and Warton in Amundernesse; amends of ale in all towns; infangthef in all his fees of Blakeburnshire, Salfordshire, Laylandshire, and Derbishire; and gallows at Clyderhou, Penwortham, and Totyngton. Moreover, he claims to be quit of common fines and amercements, except in Dunnum and Worcheston in Blakeburneshire, and to be free from suit to County and Wapentake Courts, except as to his lands in Rachedale, for which he owes suit to the County Court of Lancaster and Wapentake of Salfordshire. He also declares himself ready to answer to the King for those things which are presented in the Rageman, without writ &c.

Verdict for the Earl.

21 Edw. I. No. 6. Pedes finium. Thomas, Abbot of Saint Werburgh, demandant, and William de Heskeyth and Maud his wife, tenants, concerning land, meadow, wood, marsh, and rent in Rufford near Croston.

cerning land, meadow, wood, and marsh in Rufford.

28 Edw. I. No. 7. Pes finis. Robert de Lathum, plaintiff, and John, son of Alexander de Kyrkebyirlith, deforciant, of the manors of Kyrkebyirlith and Dunerdale.

5 Edw. II. No. 8. Pedes finium. Roger le Barker the younger, plaintiff, and Richard de Workeslegh and Margaret his wife, deforciants, of a third part of the manors of Workeslegh and Hulton.

The same Roger, plaintiff, and the said Richard and Margaret, deforciants, of two-thirds of the same manors.

16 Edw. II. No. 9. Assisa nobe disseisine. Nigel, Prior of Saint Mary's Church, Lancaster, v. John, son of Robert le Kene, and Ralph le Foulur. Concerning a freehold (moor, pasture, &c.) in Neuton near Lancaster. Defendants plead that Neuton is not a town, borough, or hamlet. The Jury find that Neuton is a hamlet of Bulk, and that the tenements are in Neuton and not in Lancaster; that Roger le Petevyn, formerly Lord of the town of Lancaster, gave to one of the predecessors of the now Prior the hamlet of Neuton in frankalmoigne, which gift was confirmed by King John, when Earl of Mortein, who afterwards made the town of Lancaster a free borough.

Judgment for the Prior, with damages.

17 Edw. II. No. 10. Presentaciones coram Justiciariis itinerantibus. The King v. John, son of Gilbert de la Legh. Concerning four wild animals taken in the King's chase on the Estmores in Touneley and Clyvacher. Defendant pleads that he is lord of a third part of the town of Tounley in right of Cecily his late wife; and that he and the ancestors of Cecily, being tenants of lands there, from time immemorial have chased on the Estmores in Tounley and Clyvacher, and taken wild animals as of right appurtenant to the said freehold.

Verdict in favour of John, tenant by the law of England, after the death of Cecily, his wife, whose ancestors have chased and taken animals in the King's chase within certain limits, beginning at a place called Saxifeldike on the north up to Crombebrok on the south.

3 Edw. III. No. 11. Inquisition taken—by virtue of a writ of certiorari—before the Steward of the lands of Isabel, Queen of England, on behalf of the Abbot of Kirkstall, concerning the metes of the manor of Bernolneswyke.

The Jury say that Henry de Lacy, formerly lord of Blakeburneshire and of the manor of Bernolneswyke, gave the said manor to one Alexander, Abbot of Kirkestal, and the monks there, by certain limits contained in his writing thereof made, viz., beginning at the Blakebrok and so beyond the moor to Gailmersh; then to the head of Ellerhagh and across the hill, called Blakhou; next to Oxgil, then to Pikedelowe, which is called Aleynsete, and thence to ancient ditch between Midthorp and Coller Dene. The same Abbot and monks and their successors were seised of the manor within the said limits up to the time of Hen. III., when Edmund de Lacy, Earl of Lincoln, ejected the then Abbot from his freehold, amounting to about 1050 acres.

Asked, if the tenants of the lords of Blakeburnshire had common for their cattle within the limits aforesaid, they say they know not, on account of the length of time elapsed.

Further asked, if the tenants of the Lords of Colne had common for cattle, the Jurors say they had not.

7 Edw. III. No. 12. Loquela coram Rege. Between the Abbot of Kirkstall and Isabel, Queen of England. Concerning 840 acres of wood, moor, and pasture, half being in co. Lancaster, and the other half in co. York; which tenements, Henry de Lascy, by charter of foundation, gave to Alexander then Abbot of Kirkestall, and the monks there, to hold for ever in frank-almoigne. [Record much torn and defaced. After sundry pleadings, petitions, and writs set out.]

Judgment for the Abbot.

8 Edw. III. No. 13. De Recto de Advocatione. Simon, Prior of S. Mary, Kertmell, plaintiff, and Richard, son of John de Hudelstone, deforciant, concerning the church of Qwydington. Judgment for the Prior by default; but, execution being stayed on suspicion of collusion between the parties, the matter came before a jury, who found the advowson to belong to the Prior in right of his church of Kertmell. [After recording sundry disputes concerning the advowson, it is found that]—On a vacancy of the church, John de Hodeleston, temp. Edw. I., presented, successively, John de Lovel and Thomas de Weston, who both resigned. On the resignation of the latter, John de Hodleston presented one Robert de Hodelston; on whose death, William de Walton, then Prior of Kertmell, presented John de Luton, who was admitted and instituted 27 Edw. I. Afterwards, the church being void by the deprivation of the said John de Luton, Richard de Hodleston, son and heir of the aforesaid John, presented thereto Roger Stot, temp. Edw. II.; and, on his resignation, the same Richard presented, also temp. Edw. II., William Felagh, who is now incumbent of the church.

Verdict. That there is no fraud or collusion between the said Richard and the Prior. Therefore, the Prior to have execution.

11 Edw. III. No. 14. Pes finis. Mabel, who was wife of William de Bradshagh, knt., plaintiff, and William, son of John de Bradshagh, deforciant, of the Manor of Blakerode with the appurtenances, except two messuages, 62 acres of land, 8 acres of meadow, and 10 acres of wood in the same manor.

14 Edw. III. No. 15. Pes finis. Hugh de Rochefort (de Rupe forti), plaintiff, and Fromund de Northampton and Hawise, his wife, deforciants, of a moiety of the manor of Alston with the appurtenances.

" No. 16. Inquisitio de quadam Redisseisina. To Roger, son of Alan de Molineux, by Richard, son of John de Molineux, of a third part of a moiety of 200 acres of moor and pasture with appurtenances in Raynhull.

17 Edw. III. No. 17. Indictamentum super quibusdam conspirationibus. The King v. John de Craven, for conspiring with others at Walton, to procure the presentation of himself to the church of Wygan, which was then filled by Ivo de Langeton. By reason whereof, he was summoned to answer in the Court of Christianity for the said presentation, whereby Ivo in divers costs, &c., lost £300.

19 Edw. III. No. 18. Placita super brevi de Scire facias ad Regis concessionem revocandam. The King v. the Abbot of Whalley. Writ recites that the chapel of Clitherhowe within the castle of Clitherhowe was annexed to the church of Whalley, which the Abbot and Convent of Whalley held to their own use, and that the advowson of the chapel was granted to them to hold as Peter de Chester, formerly parson of the said church, held the same annexed, before the church was appropriated; that by Inquisition[1] it was found, that the chapel was never annexed to the mother church of Whalley—from the time of Robert de Lacy, Lord of Blakebournshire, who was before the time of King Richard, the King's progenitor,—but a gross by itself, until one Robert de Toppeclif, sometime Abbot of Whalley, purchased the chapel of the King, by which purchase the Abbot and Convent then held that chapel as annexed to the church of Whalley, and, one Brother Gregory, then Abbot of Stanlowe and the convent there, released their right (if any) in the said chapel to Henry de Lacy, Earl of Lincoln, in the form of a quit-claim, which, after the Earl's death, came to the hands of the Keeper of the Castle aforesaid, and lay among other muniments the whole time of Thomas, Earl of Lancaster, Lord of the Castle; after whose death, while the castle and lands of Blakebournshire were in the hands of the late King Edward, it was in the castle, in the keeping of William de Tateham, Steward there. After his death, the quit-claim came to the hands of John de Plesyngton, one of the executors of William de Tateham's will, who then had it in keeping, or else it was removed by him.

[1] [Inq. a. q. d. 19 Edw. III., No. 22.]

Thereupon, by the King's writ of Scire facias, the then Abbot was commanded to show wherefore the remise made of the advowson by the King ought not to be revoked and retaken into the King's hand. The Abbot, appearing on the day named, says that the chapel is and always has been annexed to the church of Whalley; that it is not a gross by itself; that Peter de Chester held the chapel annexed to the church, &c.; and that the said Gregory did not release, &c.

The King's Attorney says that the chapel was never annexed, &c.

Issue joined, but no verdict.

20 Edw. III. No. 19. Pes finis. John, son of Robert Nevill of Horneby, knt., and Isabel, his wife, plaintiffs, and Robert Nevill of Horneby, chivaler, and Joan, his wife, deforciants, of 3 messuages, 140 acres of land, 60 acres of meadow, 60 acres of pasture, 40 acres of wood, and 100 acres of moor with the appurtenances in Oldum and Glothyk; also an eighth part of the manor of Shevyngton.

28 Edw. III. No. 20. Placita super brebi de Formedon in le Descendre. Robert, son of Gilbert, son of Rob. de Rustune, demandant, and Edmund, son of Thomas Talbot, tenant. Of the manor of Rustune near Harewod, which Robert de Praers gave to Gilbert, son of Henry de Blakeburne, in frank-marriage with Margery, his (Robert) sister, and which—after the death of Gilbert and Margery; and Henry, their son and heir; and Gilbert, son and heir of Henry; and Robert, son of Gilbert; and Gilbert, son of Robert,—ought to descend by the form of the gift aforesaid to the aforesaid Robert, son of Gilbert (last-named), as kinsman and heir of the said Gilbert (son of Henry, son of Gilbert). And whereof the same Robert says, that Robert de Praers gave the manor, &c., and, from Gilbert and Margery the right descended to Henry, as son and heir; from Henry to Gilbert, as son and heir; from Gilbert to Robert, as son and heir; from Robert to Gilbert, as son and heir; from Gilbert to this Robert, as son and heir, who now prays, &c.

Edmund, by attorney, comes and defends his right, &c., and vouches to warranty John, son of Thomas, son of Stephen de Bakshulf, summoned in the county of York by aid of the Court, &c.

And Robert says that the said Edmund ought not to be admitted, &c.

A Jury to come. No verdict.

37 Edw. III. No. 21. Placita super Traversia Officii. Between the King and the Abbot of Salop. It was found by Inquisition that one of the Kings of England, progenitor of the now King, gave a place of land called Wildgrove, a fishery in the manor, and 20*s*. rent in Wolston, for finding a monk to celebrate divine service daily for ever in the chapel of Wildegrove, for the souls of the Kings of England; which chantry had been withdrawn for many years, the lands being worth yearly 24*s*., and the fishery 20*s*.

The Abbot says, that he and his predecessors from time beyond the memory of man have held the said tenements, &c., of the gift of Ranulph, Earl of Chester, and that no progenitor of the King gave, &c.

The King's attorney says that a progenitor of the King gave, &c. (as before).

Verdict. That the Abbot and his predecessors from time out of mind have held the aforesaid tenements, of the gift of the Earl of Chester, in frankalmoign, according to certain charters, and not as by the Inquisition is supposed.

Judgment. That the Abbot have restitution of the tenements with the issues, and also the fishery.

39 Edw. III. No. 22. Placita in Quare impedit.

Between the Duke of Lancaster and Blanche, his wife, and the Abbot of Whalleye, as to the presentation to the chapel of Saint Michael in Clitherowe Castle, now void. [Record too much torn to be properly abstracted, but the Verdict and Judgment are perfect, viz. :—]

Verdict. That the chapel of Saint Michael in the Castle of Cliderhowe is not a gross by itself, but is annexed to the parish church of Whalleye, and is member and parcel of the same, and has been from time out of mind; that all collations to the chapel, at divers turns, in the time of the Abbot and his predecessors, made by the antecessors of the said Blanche or other lords or possessors of the said Castle, have been made by intrusion only, and by usurping the estate and possession of the Abbot and his predecessors; and further, that such possession has always continued, from the time of the death of Peter de Chester, sometime parson of the said church, up to now; that the said Peter and all those who before him held the church, were seised of the chapel as member and parcel thereof, and likewise, after the death of Peter, the said Abbot and his predecessors have continued in the same possession as annexed to the church of Whalleye.

Judgment in favour of the Abbot. The Duke and Blanche are amerced for false claim.

No. 23. Placita in Assisa nove disseisine. William de Careless, chivaler, and Emma, his wife, plaintiffs, and Henry de Terbok and others, disseisors, of their freehold in Terbok post primam, &c.; and whereof they complain that they have been disseised of their manor of Terbok.

The parties having put themselves on the country, on behalf of Henry it is said, that one

Richard Terbok was seised in fee of the said manor, and took to wife one Maud (Matill.), on whom he begat Henry, and died; after whose death, the said William and Emma claiming in right of Emma—as daughter and heir of Richard (whereas she was and is a bastard)—intruded into the manor; and Henry, as son and heir of Richard born in wedlock, removed them (as it was lawful for him to do) without any injury or disseisin done. And hereof he puts himself on the assize. William and Emma do likewise.

The recognitors say, that William and Emma were never seised of the manor, so they could not be disseised, because Henry is son and heir of Richard Terbok, who begat him of one Maud his wife in lawful wedlock. So, Henry is true and right heir of Richard de Terbok.

Judgment in favour of Henry; William and Emma amerced for their false claim.

39 Edw. III. No. 24. De Recto de Custodia heredis, &c. Henry de Skaresbrok, demandant, and William de Atherton, chivaler, deforciant. William was summoned to answer the plea that he yield Robert, son and heir of Robert de Hurleton, whose custody belongs to Henry, because Robert (the father) held his land of Henry by knight's service, viz., 12 bovates of land in Hurleton and Skaresbrok, by homage and fealty, by paying to the King's scutage of 40*s.*, 10*s.*, and more, more, and less, less, and by the service of 4*s.* yearly at Martinmas. Robert dying in homage, the custody of the heir belongs to Henry, and William has unjustly deprived him of that custody.

William says that Robert de Hurleton did not hold of Henry as above supposed.

Issue being joined, a Jury came.

Verdict. That Robert de Hurleton held of Henry by knight's service. The damages sustained by Henry are assessed at 40*s*. As to the value of the marriage of the heir, that he is but ten years old and unmarried, but his marriage is worth 20*l*.

Judgment that Henry recover, &c.

45 Edw. III. No. 25. Super Traversia Officii. The King v. the Prior of S. Mary, Lancaster. By certificate of the Escheator, and by a certain Inquisition, it was found that Nigel, late Prior of the church of Saint Mary, Lancaster, acquired to him and to his successors, for ever, without first obtaining the King's licence, from the Abbot and Convent of Furneys, a tract of land in a fishery in the water of Lone in a place called "Seyntmarypot" with its sein, and a tract, with sein, in all other places of the said water from "Seyntmariwell" up to the ford of Prestwayth, which fishery with sein is worth yearly 100*s*.; and that the Prior and his predecessors have occupied the fishery for 53 years past, &c.

Afterward, the now Prior appearing in Chancery says, that both tracts are of the foundation of the said House from time out of mind, and were held as parcel of its temporalities until the Escheator took them into the King's hand.

The King's attorney says that Nigel, formerly Prior, acquired &c. (as before).

Issue thereupon joined and a Jury had.

Verdict. That the tract of land and tract of fishery in the water of Lone are of the ancient foundation of the House of Saint Mary, Lancaster, and that the now Prior and his predecessors from the foundation of the House have held the same as parcel of the temporalities.

The Prior prays judgment. [The Record is much torn and obliterated; and the part, on which the Judgment was given, wholly lost.]

48 Edw. III. No. 26. Super Traversia Officii. The King v. the Abbot of Kirkstall. By Inquisition it was found that one Roger de Ledys, late Abbot of Kirkstall, in the time of the now King, within 25 years past, and without the King's licence, purchased to him and to his successors, for ever, 100 acres of pasture in Admergill of Henry, late Duke of Lancaster; which pasture is held of the King in capite.

The now Abbot (by attorney) in Chancery says, that he and all his predecessors, Abbots, have had and held, time out of mind, a great pasture called Admergill (of which the said 100 acres are parcel), as in right of their church of Saint Mary of Kirkestall, of the heirs of Henry de Lacy, formerly Earl of Lincoln, in frankalmoign; and he denies that the said Nigel purchased &c., and that the said pasture is held of the King in capite.

Issue joined, but no verdict.

49 Edw. III. No. 27. Super Traversia Officii. The King v. Elena de Huyton. It was found by Inquisition—that Ranulph de Dacre held in fee on the day of his decease a moiety of the manor of Overkellet, of the Duke of Lancaster by the service of a sparrow-hawk or 12*d.* yearly; and that Hugh de Dacre was his brother and next heir. Hereupon, Elena de Huyton, appearing in Chancery, says that Ranulph by his charter (shown to the Court) gave to Thomas Broun, his servant, the manor of Overkellet, with all the demesne, to hold to him, his heirs, and assigns for ever. The said Thomas afterwards by his writing granted to her the manor, &c., for her life, with remainder to Ranulph and his heirs, for ever; and, by virtue thereof she occupied, until, under colour of the Inquisition, she was removed by the Escheator.

The King's Attorney, in pleading, says that Ranulph held, &c., as found by the Inquisition.

Issue thereupon being joined, and a Jury had.

Verdict in favour of Elena de Huyton.[1]

Licences and Pardons.

ONE beneficial result, at least, has accrued to the antiquary from the burdensome fines[1] which were formerly exacted from all the King's tenants in capite upon alienation of their lands. The records connected with this incident of feudal tenure furnish some very material information bearing on the all-important subject to the County historian,—the descent of lands and tenements.

The formal Licences for alienation, as well as the Pardons for alienating without licence, are enrolled on the Patent Rolls, while the fines for the same are recorded on [1] A curious little work, quaintly entitled, The Compleat Sollicitor, performing his Duty and teaching his Clyent to run through and manage his own business, published in 1666, gives the following particulars with regard to these Fines :—"And it is to be noted, that of all Licenses to aliene temporal land in Mortmain, the fine to the King is five years value of the same. Of all Licenses to aliene spiritual land (as appropriations of Churches, or other benefices spiritual) the fine to the King is four years value thereof. Of all Licenses of alienation of lands holden of the King in capite, the fine is the third part of the value, the Tenth deducted. Of all pardons of alienation by the King's Tenant in capite, the fine is one year's value thereof. Of Licenses of Marriage of the King's Widow, the fine is the third part of the value of her Dower by a year. Of all pardons of the King's Widows married without License, the fine is the whole value of her Dower by a year" [pp. 203–204]. At page 202 of the same volume there is an example in extenso of a Pardon of Alienation.

the Chancery Fine Rolls. These sources of original information must, therefore, on no account be overlooked when difficulties arise in tracing the descent of landed property.

But, in addition to these Chancery Enrolments, we have in the records of the now abolished Alienation Office[1] another large store of this class of evidence. Though not much consulted, probably on account of their somewhat intricate nature, the Indexes to the Entry Books of Licences and Pardons[2] provide some exceptionally valuable notes as to the descent of most of the larger estates. We say notes advisedly, inasmuch as, through the loss or non-identification of a seemingly most important series of volumes,[3] nearly the

[1] Established temp. Eliz., and then called "My Lord of Leicester's Office," because he had the first grant. Office abolished by 5 & 6 W. IV. c. 82., and the duties and records transferred to an officer of the Common Pleas, called the Registrar of Acknowledgments by Married Women. Transferred to the Public Record Office as part of the Common Pleas Records under Stat. 1 & 2 Vict. c. 94.—Thomas's Hand-book, p. 121.

[2] The heading of the second volume of these Entry Books, commencing in the year 1576, is as follows :—"Liber Intracionum de Licenciis ac Perdonacionibus Alienacionum de terris et tenementis, cum ver*a* valore ejusdem in eisdem Licenciis et Perdonacionibus conten*ta*, cum finibus pro eisdem solutis." The earlier volumes give marginal references to the Patent Rolls, thus :—"xj^{ma} pars, rol. a^{o} xiij^{o}," signifying, 13 Eliz., part 11, of these Chancery rolls.

[3] Several attempts have been made to identify these volumes, but without success. It is possible that the unidentified Entry Books may have been connected with some of the proceedings requisite for the levying of Fines (Pedes Finium), or the suffering of Recoveries. In fact, as the King's fines payable on Writs of Covenant and Writs of Entry were assessed and paid at the Alienation Office, this surmise does not seem to be at all improbable. The following Entry Books of the Court of Common Pleas have, however, failed to furnish the required series :—

(1.) King's Silver Office Books, containing entries of all Fines, the return day of the Writ of Covenant, and the amount of the præ and post fines.

(2.) Return Office Books, containing returns of Writs of Entry, Writs of Summons, and Writs of Seisin for suffering Common Recoveries,—54 vols.

(3.) Alienation Office Books, containing Extracts from Writs of whole of the references are deprived of a great deal of their original value. Nevertheless, the slight clue afforded in these volumes will enable the searcher—with a little ingenuity—to supply the lost information from such sources as the Patent and Close Rolls, the Inquisitions post mortem or the Feet of Fines.

In the Lancashire and Cheshire portions of these Indexes which follow, all the references that are useless for direct purposes are given between round brackets; those between square brackets are all good references, indicating, in the Cheshire portion, the Entry Books of Licences and Pardons, and in the Lancashire portion, the volumes of Inquisitions post mortem among the records of the Duchy of Lancaster. In the latter case the precise reference to the volume and the number of the Inquisition are now supplied, as the old Indexes only give the year in which the Inquisition was held.

The series of volumes containing the Entries of Licences and Pardons begins in Easter Term, 13 Elizabeth (1571), and extends to Michaelmas, 1650. Some idea of the nature of their contents may be gathered from the subjoined Pardon, taken at random from the third volume. For some reason which cannot be readily explained, this and some other Lancashire and Cheshire entries are not noticed in the Indexes given below. Their imperfect character should, therefore, be carefully borne in mind by all who are desirous of making an exhaustive search.

First Fruits' Composition Books.

A LIST of the classes composing the records of the abolished Office of First Fruits[1] and Tenths is printed in the Appendix to the Twentieth Report of the Deputy Keeper, pp. 92–94.

King Henry VIII.'s Survey of all the ecclesiastical benefices of England and Wales, entitled variously the "King's Books," "Liber Regis," or "Valor Ecclesiasticus,"[2] is the most important and best known record in the collection. But, the Bishop's Certificates certifying the induction of clerks to Livings, the Institution Books, Plea Rolls, and Composition Books, furnish some very material information in tracing the ownership and descent of Livings.

The subjoined Index refers to the Composition Books (First Series), which contain the entries of the Compositions for First Fruits paid by incumbents on induction, with the date of such payments, and the names of sureties.

[1] "Court of First Fruits erected 32 Hen. VIII. c. 45, dissolved by Letters Patent 23rd January, 1 Mary, and united to the Court of Exchequer by Letters Patent 24th January, 1 Mary. Annexed to which Letters Patent there is a schedule of directions. First Fruits were abolished by Stat. 2 & 3 Phil. and Mary, c. 4. Revived by Stat. 1 Eliz. c. 4, and put under the survey of the Exchequer.

"The office was abolished by Stat. 1 Vict. c. 20, and the collection of the revenue placed under the management of the Governors and Treasurer of Queen Anne's Bounty, and the records were placed under the care of the Treasurer; but subsequently by Stat. 1 & 2 Vict. c. 94 the records were placed under the control of the Master of the Rolls."—Thomas's Hand-book, p. 196.

[2] Printed in 6 vols. folio, 1811–1834. The Diocese of Chester appears in vol. v. pp. 201–272, together with a map of the diocese.

VI.

Royalist Composition Papers.

DURING the period of the Interregnum the executive government was almost entirely carried on by means of different Committees. Among these, the Committee for Compounding with Delinquents — i.e. those who took the royalist side in the civil war, and also Papists and Recusants[1]—which lasted from 1644 to 1657, and superseded the Sequestration Committee, occupies a prominent position.

As Mrs. Green states in her Preface to the Calendar of State Papers, Domestic, 1649–1650, the object of this Committee "was to receive from delinquents themselves, either such against whom no information had been made, or such as were already under sequestration,—

"(1.) A confession of their delinquency.

"(2.) A pledge of adherence to the present government.

"(3.) A full account on oath of their possessions, real and personal.

"Whereupon a legal report was made, and they were admitted to compound in proportions, according to their guilt; half the estate was exacted from any delinquent member of Parliament; one-sixth from those who had taken part either in the former or latter war; two-sixths or one-third from those who had been active in both wars, &c. Those who were in cities that surrendered on articles of war compounded according to the tenor of those articles."

[1] "The mere fact of professing the Roman Catholic religion subjected 'the delinquent' to forfeit two parts out of three of his whole estate, and two parts of his goods. The sittings of the committee of sequestration for Lancashire were usually held at Preston."—Baines' Lancashire, ed. Harland, vol. i. p. 225, note.

The sums so assessed were paid direct into the Treasury at Goldsmiths' Hall, and amounted in eight years to the considerable sum of £1,304,957 2*s.* 1*d.*;[1] but even this respectable total did not include the estates of many of the wealthiest delinquents—those who were not permitted to compound, or who quitted the country—which the sequestrators seized in their entirety.

A list of the names of the Compounders, derived from a Treasurer's Summary compiled in August, 1652 [G. 43], was published in a small volume, which is now very scarce, entitled, "A Catalogue of the Lords, Knights, and Gentlemen that haue compounded for their Estates. London: printed for Thomas Dring, at the signe of the George, in Fleet Street, neare Clifford's Inne, 1655."

The contents of this little volume are not remarkable for their accuracy, and the list of Lancashire Compounders printed at page 225 of the first volume of Harland's edition of Baines' "History of Lancashire" seems to have been taken from this source, as it reproduces most of the errors of Dring's "Catalogue."[2] An accurate list of the Lancashire and Cheshire Compounders, together with the particulars of

[1] This is the manuscript total given in a copy of Dring's "Catalogue" now in the British Museum. In Adams's edition of the "Catalogue," the total is given as—£1,305,299 4*s.* 7*d.*

[2] A reprint was issued in 1733 by subscription, the subscribers being principally residents in Cheshire and Lancashire. The following is a copy of the title-page:—

"A CATALOGUE of the LORDS, KNIGHTS, and GENTLEMEN, that have Compounded for their ESTATES. To which are added, some Gentlemen's Names, which were omitted in the former Edition. LONDON: Printed for Thomas Dring, 1655; and CHESTER: Re-printed by R. Adams, 1733. (Price Bound Two Shillings.)" their estates and the results of their "delinquencies," therefore, still remains a work of the future.

The Royalist Composition Papers, as the proceedings of the Committee for Compounding are termed, are of the greatest interest and value in elucidating the family history and ascertaining the actual landed and personal property of individuals during the period of the Commonwealth. The original papers are now arranged and bound up in two series, and are referred to by manuscript Indexes. The first series consists of 7,300 sets of papers, bound in 113 folio volumes; it comprises the correspondence and orders[1] of the Commissioners for sequestration and sale of the estates of the royalist nobility and gentry. The first portion of this series is arranged alphabetically under the names of the Compounders, then come the miscellaneous Petitions and Orders, and these again are followed by the Letters and Reports in a County arrangement, Lancashire being contained in Volumes 98 to 101 and Cheshire in Volumes 87 to 89.

The second series of 3,634 sets of papers, bound in 54 folio volumes, is especially valuable. In these will be found the original particulars, given in on oath, of the estates and personal property of those royalists who were permitted to compound on payment of a fine, and the amount of the Compositions so levied on them by the Commissioners.

In addition to the preceding there are two very large volumes of "Entries of Particulars of Delinquents' Estates, Real and Personal" [G. 55, 56], with an Index Nominum [G. 57]; and also, two similar Entry-books containing Reports on Delinquents' Estates and Fines levied thereon [G. 53, 54], with an Index to both at the end of the second volume [G. 54]. Duplicate copies of the original Particulars are furnished in these registers. Two volumes, belonging to the same Commissioners, containing Surveys of Estates during the years 1652 and 1653 [G. 58, 59], are deserving of especial notice, and will certainly repay a careful examination.

[1] There are also distinct "Order Books" [G. 1, 2, 3, 4, &c.] of the Compounding Committee, which should not be lost sight of by the searcher.

The Index Nominum to the Second Series of Royalist Composition Papers,[1] which is given below, is derived from a contemporary Index of the Compounders' names digested into Counties;[2] it furnishes most of the names of the Lancashire and Cheshire Delinquents. The Indexes Nominum usually consulted by searchers give only the bare names without any particulars as to the Counties or places, and are consequently unfit for our present purpose.

The Index Locorum to the First Series, which immediately follows, forms a portion of the volumes in ordinary use in the Literary Search Room.

It has not been deemed necessary to check the references with the originals, and, therefore, it is quite possible that some inaccuracies, which might otherwise have been remedied, have been allowed to stand. It is to be hoped, however, that the information, now printed for the first time, will enable local readers to obtain a fair insight into the general contents of these very valuable manuscripts.

[1] The lettering is :—"Alphabetical, Numerical, and County Indexes to the Second Series of Royalist Composition Papers. 1825." The old list of "Names of Delinq^ts numbered" placed at the end of the volume gives 3,634 names up to 29 July, 1656. The reference numbers in this Index are those given on the small paper tags affixed to the sets of the original papers.

[2] On an old parchment label pasted into this book appears the following :—

"COMPOUNDERS' NAMES digested into COUNTIES.—With a duplicate of this was sent above one thousand Particulars to the Council; also an accompt what fines were sett upon every person for delinquency, and an accompt of w^t was thereof due and unpaid."

[1] Henry Bunbury, Esq., of Bunbury and Stanny in Cheshire, had his whole estate sequestered for five years, and he all that time kept in gaol at Namptwick; they allowed him but the fifth part of the profit of his estate, tho' he had ten children: and on his enlargement he was compelled to pay two thousand two hundred pounds. He was damaged by sequestration and plundering more than ten thousand pounds; besides he had a very good Hall-house at Hooll burnt to the ground.—Appendix to Adams's Catalogue, p. 127.

"Palmer's Indexes."

THESE valuable private Indexes were purchased for the public service from the executors of Mr. Thomas Palmer, Clerk of the Rolls Chapel Records, and subsequently Assistant Keeper of the Public Records.

In former times it was customary with the Record Keepers to accumulate referential aids compiled by the ancient custodians of the public muniments, in order to assist them in their private business as record-agents. These Indexes they considered as their private property, and heavy fees—not unfrequently as much as five guineas—were charged for general searches in them.

It cannot be readily ascertained how Palmer formed the whole of his collection, though, it is probable, that most of the volumes came to his hands through two previous Clerks of the Records at the Rolls Chapel, to wit, Mr. Rooke and Mr. John Kipling. Indeed, from the Record Report for the year 1800, we learn that twenty-four of the volumes, which are directly referred to in the ensuing pages, were then in the possession of Mr. Kipling, who states, in his Return to the Record Commissioners, that they "appear by a note in the handwriting of my predecessor, Mr. Rooke, to have been purchased by him of the Rev. Mr. Sanford of Oxford." Further on, in the same Report, he informs us that the Alphabets—those now printed—were purchased by Mr. Rooke of Mr. Osborne, Bookseller in Gray's Inn, in the year 1727.

Here we get a glimpse of the early history of a portion of Palmer's collection, and, it is not unlikely, that nearly all the 150 volumes to which it now extends, were acquired by him in much the same manner as the ones referred to above. Having been compiled by several hands and at various periods, the indexes do not exhibit any very perfect or systematic arrangement, neither could this, under such circumstances, be expected. Nevertheless, with all their faults and imperfections, these ancient compilations are, and must for some time continue to remain, of the utmost value in dealing with such leading classes of the Court of Chancery as the Patent, Close, Charter, and Fine Rolls.

A useful Catalogue Raisonné of the 150 volumes is printed at pages 184 to 188 of the Appendix to the Twentieth Report of the Deputy Keeper, to which we must refer those of our readers who wish to form an accurate idea of the entire collection. In these pages space will not allow us to do more than to notice those volumes with which we are at the present more directly concerned.

The Index Locorum to the Patent Rolls, extending from the reign of Henry VIII. to that of Charles II., which is provided in the first thirty-five volumes of the collection, is, so far as it goes, a work of undoubted value. By means of this group of Indexes, we are enabled to trace the names of the grantees of all Crown or Church lands for nearly 200 years, during a most important period, when the vast possessions of the dissolved Monasteries and other religious foundations were being gradually dispersed.

The regular official Indexes to the Patent Rolls for this period furnish the names of the Grantees only, and though this system of indexing the rolls was, doubtless, considered by far the simplest and best method of referring to the Patents, yet, it is found in practice, in the majority of cases at the present day, that the name of the original Grantee is precisely the information that is required to be traced. A fair Index Locorum to the Patent Rolls is, therefore, the urgent want which Palmer's collections go a long way to supply.

The necessity of an Index of Places in dealing with the Patent Rolls will be more fully appreciated, if we remind our readers of a practice which obtained in suing out Grants from the Crown, that tended in no slight degree to conceal the names of the real Grantees. As it is explained in Sir Francis Palgrave's Second Report, "it was customary that several individuals, who had agreed to purchase lands from the Crown, or who had sued or applied for the same, procured the Grant or Patent to be made unto one individual as a trustee or nominee on behalf of all who had made the application or sued out the Grant or Patent. They thus paid the fees only for one Patent, and the nominee then conveyed the property in lots to the parties entitled to the same."[1] The knowledge of this fact may also help to solve the difficulties experienced by searchers in connexion with some of these early Patents.

Palmer's Indices Locorum would, undoubtedly, be far more frequently resorted to, were it not for the difficulties attending the identification of the references. The County Alphabets, those noticed above as having been purchased from the Gray's Inn bookseller, are exceedingly complicated in their construction, and confusing as regards the references; in fact, in their present condition, the solution of the references affords a good opportunity to anyone in search of a tough puzzle. Even to the owner of the Indexes the county of Lancaster seems to have been a source of some perplexity, for a note in T. P.'s [Thomas Palmer] "Guide Book in searching this Series" runs:—"This County is somewhat confused with Leicester, Oxon, and Rutland, and requires great care in searching, there being two sets of Alphabets."[2] Here, then, appeared a good opportunity to simplify this rough but valuable material bearing on the two counties, as a step towards a more accurate knowledge of the Lancashire and Cheshire Grants enrolled on the Patent Rolls.

[1] Second Report of the Deputy-Keeper of the Public Records, p. 12.
[2] Volume 128.

The Alphabets in the form they are now presented to the reader will, it is hoped, present no difficulties whatever. The numbers and letterings of the volumes in which the Abstracts of the Patents are to be found—furnishing the date of each Grant of lands or hereditaments, the name of the Grantee, the parcels, and the duration of the interest of the Grantee—are distinctly set out, and, to make the work more perfect, several of the volumes of Abstracts have been carefully re-indexed to supply gaps in the original Alphabets.

Though, therefore, the ensuing pages cannot be said to contain anything like a perfect Index Locorum to the Patent Rolls during the period dealt with, yet, it is believed, that these lists of place-names will at least furnish a clue to the contents of nearly all the principal Lancashire and Cheshire Royal Grants during the reigns of Henry VIII., Edward VI., Philip and Mary, Elizabeth, James I., Charles I. and II.

The following English version of an extract from the Edward VI. volume of Abstracts, will serve as an illustration of the contents of the volumes to which the ensuing Alphabets refer:
